

GOING OVER THE TOP. Miss Jeffries, of the English team, doing a high leapfrog during the Ladies' International Championships in Paris.

MRS. W. J. CLOTHIER

MRS. RICHARD H. TOLAND

MR. AND MRS. SAMUEL D. RIDDLE

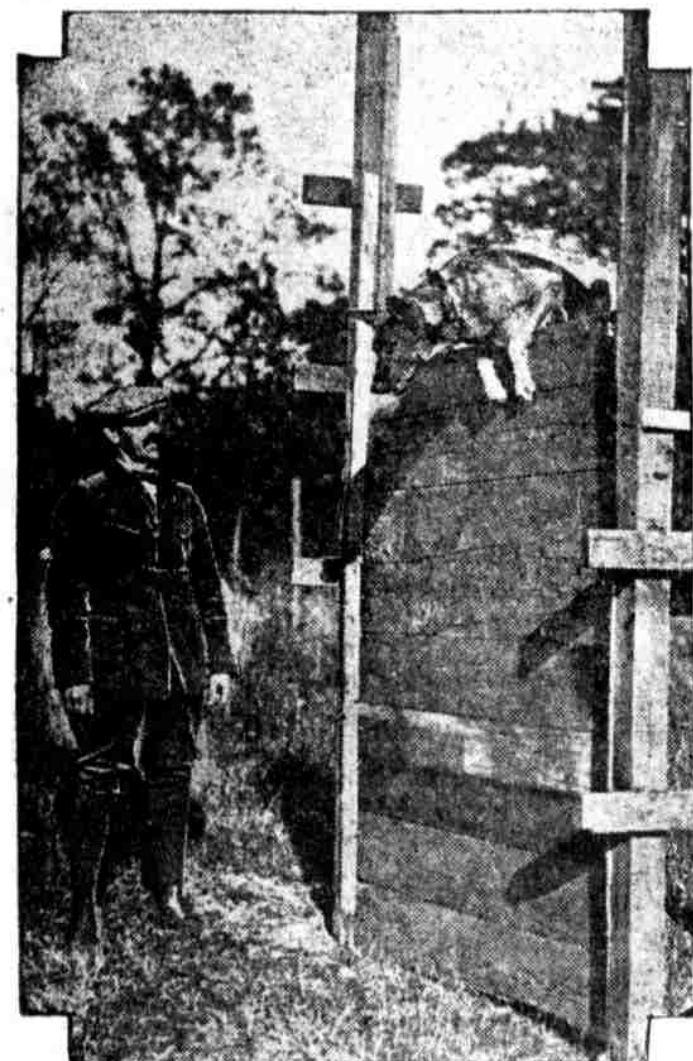

MRS. WILLIAM W. BODINE

PRESIDENT HARDING IN ALABAMA. He was snapped while making an address during the semi-centennial celebration of the city of Birmingham.

THEY ALL SAW DOOLEY WIN. Jacob E. Ridgway's bay gelding Dooley won the Pickering Challenge Cup race, the feature event of the Pickering Hunt races. They were held on the William J. Clothier estate at Valley Forge. Ledger Photo Service

AN EIGHT-FOOT JUMP. During the police dog field day trials, conducted at the Shepherd Dog Club of America's show at Montclair, N. J.

"MIDNIGHT" IN MIDAIR. The winner of many blue ribbons is ridden by Miss Marion Jones, of Warrenburg, Missouri, at the International Horse Show in Oklahoma.

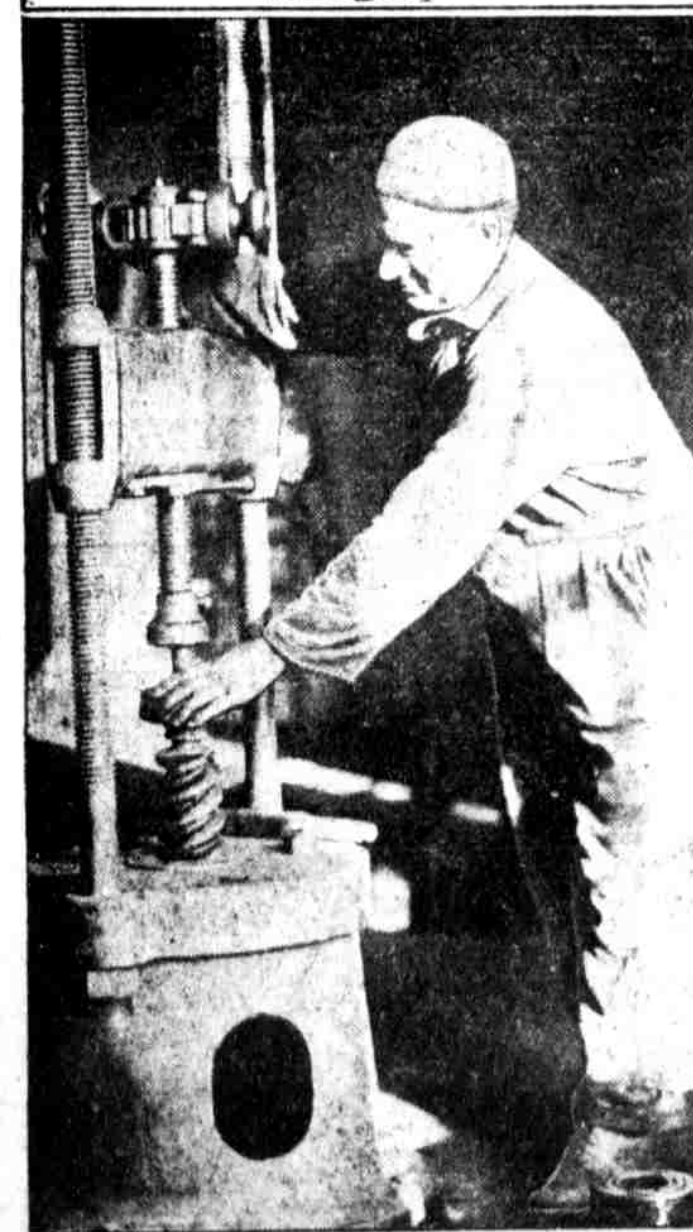

CHILDREN IN HALLOWEEN PARTY. Members of the North Hills Country Club opened the doors of the clubhouse to scores of youngsters for the annual fall frolic. A few of the guests were Jean Fraser, Marian Kirchman and Anna Baskind (left to right).

CLAUDE URQUART, captain of the Bordentown High School football team.

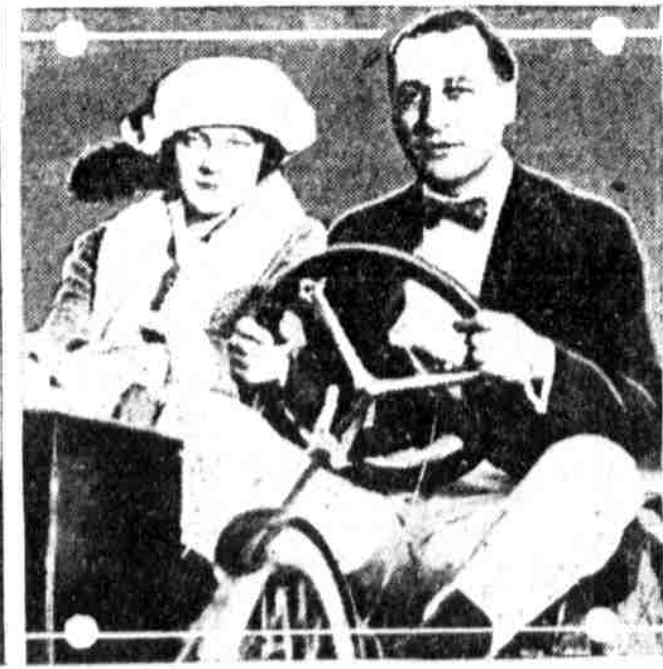

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO.

MICHAEL J. HIGGINS, 2325 Lombard street, operating a machine that presses bearings on worms of rear axles at Brockway Motor Truck Co., 2324 Market st.

INSPECTING BRITISH SOLDIERY. General Pershing (right), and the Duke of Connaught during part of the ceremony that attended the decorating of the grave of Britain's "unknown" soldier in Westminster Abbey, London.

AN AUTOCAIR BUILT FOR TWO. Mr. and Mrs. Elmore D. Hotchkiss, Jr., are honeymooning at White Sulphur Springs, Va.

SIR BERTRAM HAYES. Will command world's largest ship, the Majestic.

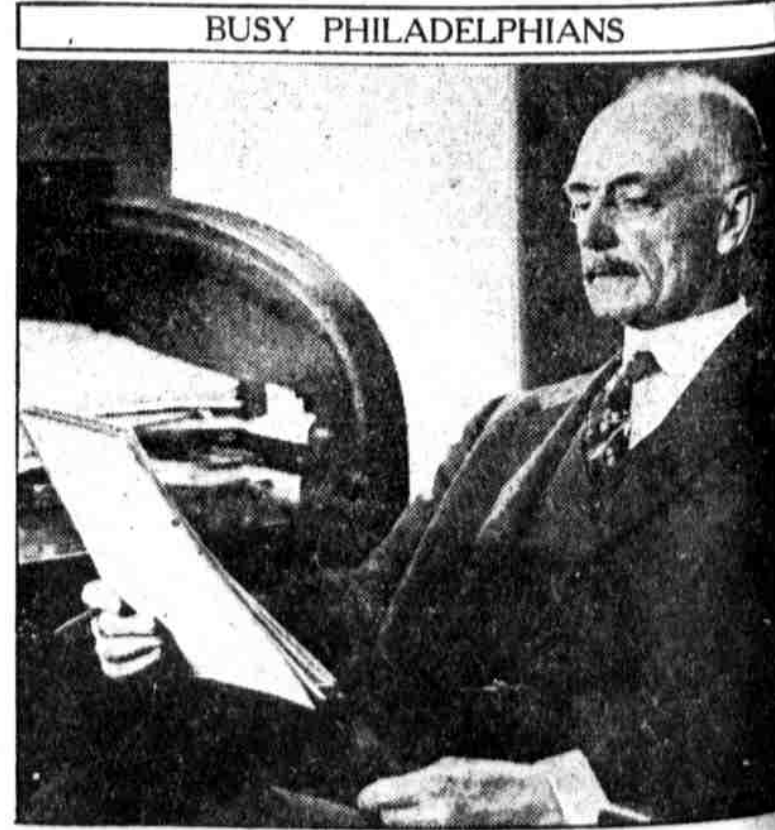

GIRARD COLLEGE SOCCERITES. They were snapped while at play on the grounds of the college. Captain Elliott has been able to lead his team in victory over several good teams this season. A few days ago they defeated West Philadelphia High School.

RAYMOND WALTERS talks on value of great community chorus in Editorial Page interview.

DR. RICHARD STRAUSS, the world's greatest living composer (right) was greeted by Leopold Stokowski, leader of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

THOMAS W. ANDREW, vice president of the First National Bank, 315 Chestnut street. Mr. Andrew lives on North Chester road, Swarthmore. His hobby is golf.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS